

1 matter of fact, anxious not to offer an amendment here if
2 it could be understood that if the remote contingency sug-
3 gested would come to pass, I would still have an oppor-
4 tunity somehow or another to get this matter back before
5 the Convention because, very frankly, I don't think and 6 I would trust that the majority of the delegates here
7 sampled would agree with me that the Governor, no matter
8 how fine he would be should have the right to interfere
9 with the academic freedom of our institutes of higher
10 education.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair thinks he can give you 12 the information you seek without violating any rules of 13 the Convention by assuring you that the reports of the 14 Committee on Style with respect to Committee Recommenda-
15 tion EB-1 will not be submitted to the Convention until the 16 Committee of the Whole has acted on the recommendation of 17 the Committee on General Provisions.

18 You would, of course, then have an opportunity 19 on second reading to offer any amendment that might be 20 applicable to the article.

21 Delegate Case.
